‘Screening for Life’

Hannah Jones

Screening Engagement Specialist, Screening Engagement Team

THE TALK

Screening is a process of identifying apparently healthy people who may be at increased risk of a disease or condition. They can then be offered information, further tests and appropriate treatment to reduce their risk and/or any complications arising from the disease or condition.

Public Health Wales NHS Trust is responsible for the management and delivery of the adult screening programmes in Wales;

- Breast Test Wales
- Cervical Screening Wales
- Bowel Screening Wales
- Wales Abdominal Aortic Aneurysm Screening Programme.

The workplace can play an important role in supporting the NHS to raise awareness of screening in Wales.

This informative talk will provide an overview of the four adult screening programmes in Wales and what you can do to improve awareness within the workplace.

THE SPEAKER

Hannah Jones is a Screening Engagement Specialist for Public Health Wales, Screening Division. Since joining the team in 2008, Hannah has gained a considerable amount of experience of engaging with hard to reach communities, voluntary groups and private and public sector organisations across North Wales.

Hannah has almost 10 years experience of working in public health and has recently completed an MSc in Professional Studies at the University of Chester.
